PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the thirty-sixth annual celebration of National Thrift Week marks also the two hundred and forty-seventh anniversary of the birthdate of Benjamin Franklin, who is called, "The Father of Thrift"; and

WHEREAS, Benjamin Franklin, through his writings, teachings and practice of thrift contributed to and influenced the course of the American Republic; and

WHEREAS, Thrift and Conservation are inherent in the vigorous growth and prosperity of the United States; and

WHEREAS, continued growth of our State and Nation must be built upon the balanced economy of individuals, industry, civic enterprises and government,

NOW, THEREFOR, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, commemorating the anniversary of Benjamin Franklin's birth, do hereby designate and proclaim the week of January 17 through January 23, 1953, as in South Dakota and urge the citizens of our state to cooperate in its observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 15th day of 1953.
